NEWS FROM BARNHAM VILLAGE SCHOOL

We have had a wonderful Autumn half-term at Barnham Primary School; it has been a pleasure to welcome new children, staff and governors to our school family.

Our children were so excited to perform their Harvest songs, poems and prayers at our harvest service at St. Gregory's Church, we are so incredibly proud of them, especially our new Reception children!

Year 6 have enjoyed busy day at Duxford Imperial War Museum, whilst Year 2 have been busy out and about learning about lots of different careers.

Our youngest Barnham Bunnies have been super busy, this birth - pre school group runs every Friday from 9-10am. Please do pop along!

You can follow our adventures on Facebook at Barnham CEVE Primary School, Suffolk

Enjoy the magnificence and beauty of Autumn.

Mrs Arnold – Headteacher

BURY ST EDMUNDS WOMEN'S AID

If you would like to give a present to a lady or a child this Christmas it is easy to do !

Please could ladies' presents be new and wrapped - perhaps with a message - and children's also be new and unwrapped so that they can be allocated to the appropriate age. We are advised they should not contain clothes other than hats, scarves, gloves and socks.

Parcels can be left with Revd Sue 071818670124/01842890409 or Olive Deeley 01842890586/07990698446. Or they can be left in the pulpit in the church. The cut off date is 1st December please. This could be our opportunity to bring happiness at this special time !
